WEDDINGS AND EVENTS
WHATEVER IS lovely... THINK ABOUT SUCH THINGS

LND giveaway

Do you know someone planning to get married in 2010 that has a fun or inspiring story?

We're accepting submissions to our first ever Wedding Day Giveaway starting today, Tuesday January 19th. All you have to do is email info@lndevents.com and share why they are deserving of a FREE wedding day coordination collection. You can nominate yourself, your neighbor, sister, brother, mother... anyone that is getting married and hasn't already secured the services of a wedding planner. You can even nominate one of your clients!

When nominating a couple, please include the date of the event, the location of both the ceremony and reception, both the bride and grooms name, and a short story about the couple (either share why they are a deserving couple or a fun/inspirational story about them as a couple). If you have an engagement photo or a recent snapshot please include that too!

The Details: Lindsey Nartker Designs is offering the services of a wedding day coordinator to one deserving couple. Wedding day coordination clients have the opportunity to work closely with a professional wedding coordinator. During three consultations, we'll review every element that has been planned, ensure all details are in order and offer guidance on all wedding related topics. We work together to create a detailed itinerary for the week leading up to the wedding and will be onsite throughout the entire event to help execute the details. We'll be there to assist with decor set-up, ensure the overall flow of the event is seamless and handle any bridal party needs that may arise. We'll also have our extensive emergency kit on hand and available to everyone.

New Creations by Kate, a Birmingham based florist, is including a beautiful hand tied bridal bouquet and coordinating groom's boutonniere to our winner. You'll be able to work directly with Kate to design a unique, personalized bouquet that is a true reflection of your event.

Custom Paper Works is offering custom design work for our winning couple! Kate will work with you to design custom ceremony programs, escort cards, and table numbers.

Jason Aten Photography is including in our giveaway a Signature Wedding Commission, including full coverage of your event, a disc of your images, and engagement session, online proofing and a credit towards one of their Limited Edition Albums (a $5000 value).

Affordable Elegance Chair Covers and Linen will be providing chair covers and table linen to our winner! The winning couple will be able to sit through a design meeting with AECC and pick out their choice of guest table linen and chair covers, up to 150 guests. AECC has a large selection of colors and styles to choose from!

Submissions will be accepted through Monday February 1, 2010. A team of 2 non-wedding related professionals will select the top 3 finalists. Each finalist and their story will be posted on the Lindsey Nartker Designs Blog on Tuesday, February 2, 2010. Voting for the winner will begin immediately following the announcement of each finalist. Voting will be open through Tuesday, February 9, 2010.

The winning couple will be announced on Friday, February 12, 2010.

Common Questions:

I'm already a client of Lindsey Nartker Designs or I've already hired another wedding planner. Can I still apply?

Sorry, this giveaway is only open to couples that have not yet hired a wedding planner. Current clients of Lindsey Nartker Designs or other wedding planners are not eligible.

What happens if Jason Aten Photography isn't available for my date?

If Jason isn't available for your wedding date, or if you've already found a photographer, Jason will still contribute a complimentary, on-location, lifestyle engagement session and a disc of those images.

My wedding is not in Michigan. What happens if I win?

Any out of state clients will be responsible for travel expenses for two event coordinators and one photographer. The collection elements still remain the same.

I'm interested in more than just wedding day coordination. Can I upgrade to a collection that includes more planning assistance?

Yes. Each situation will be handled individually, but we are certainly willing to accommodate your needs.

If I win, what exactly am I responsible for?

All you have to do is be available for either 3 in-person or phone consultations with Lindsey Nartker Designs and provide a meal at the reception for two event coordinators and one photographer. If your wedding is outside of the tri-county area you will be responsible for linen and chair cover delivery fees.
